Subject: Rs. 30,000/- Life insurance cover under the Pradhan Mantri Jan Dhan Yojana (PMJDY).

Sir,

I am directed to refer to our letter of even number dated 12th November, 2014 (copy enclosed) regarding guidelines related to the above mentioned subject and to intimate the following clarifications on the guidelines for compliance while operationalizing the benefit of life cover under PMJDY:-

- i. Given the systemic constraints and delays that might exist, while PMJDY bank accounts and life cover under it are to be expeditiously and comprehensively linked to a Aadhar Card, benefits under it (with necessary safeguards against multiple claims etc) shall not be denied if the process of Aadhar registration and linkage to PMJDY / life cover has not been completed when a claim arises.
- ii. Similarly, registration and benefit under life cover will not be denied if the Ru-Pay card is still in the process of being issued.
- iii. The beneficiary will exit from the scheme on attaining the age of 60 years or closure of the scheme, whichever is earlier, as implied by two separate existing provisions in the guidelines.

Contd.2....

- iv. NPCI may not be required to enter into the agreement / MoU with LIC and IBA for providing this life cover benefit. LIC may do so expeditiously with IBA (representing the PSBs), and operationalize the arrangement on an immediate basis.
- v. There should be exemption / relaxation in all those cases who have enrolled for a Bank account with a Ru-Pay card but are in the process of being registered for benefit under life cover, for any death claims which arise during the intervening period.
- vi. LIC will check eligibility under AABY of persons to be covered under life cover and register them under AABY if they are eligible, in which case the benefit will not accrue under the life cover. While servicing death claims under life cover, LIC will check enrollment of the deceased under AABY and service the claim under it when admissible, and under life cover only if not admissible under AABY.

Yours faithfully,

Necessary instructions may be issued in this regard to IBA, Banks and NPCI also.
